20/134 PLANNING

a) Planning Applications for consideration

S.20/2411/FUL	Chambers Farm	Erection of Agricultural Building
	Naas Lane	Brookthorpe

It was felt that being an agricultural building the Council had no power to object. However, strong concerns were raised as to its size and justification.

b) Developments at Winnycroft Lane.

The Clerk advised that after investigations only outline permission had been granted to the developments.

c) To report on meeting with Blackbox surrounding their plans for Whaddon Fields.

The results of the meeting held on 24th November were fully discussed with members of the public. Concerns were raised about reflective noise from bunds, the closure of public rights of way due to the potential build being over 15 years, bats and newts’ surveys and the use of Naas Lane. It was agreed that these would be addressed with Black Box and Taylor Wimpey at the next meeting.

d) Parish Council response to additional homes consultation as circulated – This was agreed, and the Clerk was asked to submit.

e) Additional response to consultation sent in February 2020 – It was agreed that an extra response should be submitted to Stroud District Council concerning wildlife protection. This to be completed by Cllr Dave Kaspar and the Clerk with urgency.
